

Kingsbridge in Bloom Lockdown Limericks

Said a Kingsbridge in Bloom volunteer
There's no more working parties I fear
But despite the lockdown
Still looks good in the town
So a round of applause for all here!

There now is a group called Kingsbridge-by-Zoom
Who because of the virus cannot be in bloom
Of seed there's no need
So no water, no feed
But when they're unlocked they will race to resume

We're in lockdown because of the virus
A state not especially desirous
But with Zoom in the room
It's not all gloom and doom
It blooming well serves to inspire us

Jennie and Bryn Hayden

The Kingsbridge in Bloom volunteers
Have been gardening in Kingsbridge for years
2020's not the same
Corona's to blame
But we'll be back to it soon, no fears.

There was an old dog in Rope Walk,
Whose master had trained him to talk.
Said the dog, if you please,
I'll be planting sweet peas
So please hand me the spade and the fork!

Angela Taylor

Kingsbridge in Bloom will meet very soon.
When the Virus is well on its way.
We will at the Creek
And old friends we'll meet
All back to each Wed-nes-day.

An Inuit friend thought he'd buck the trend
And decided to change his diet.
His mother said what?
I'd rather be shot
And the children sang Whale meet again.

There's some Ixia on our Quay Court bed
What next will appear? They all said
Solanum Capsicastrum or Acer Corallinum?
I don't care as long as it's red

Campanula in Square!! I'd forgotten was there,
Said Mary one fine sunny day.
It surprises us all
(long, short and tall)
When strange plants pop up early May.

The Pilgrim houses are ready
And ideas we've got quite a few
So when we're allowed out
They'd better watch out
We'll be out there en masse dressed in blue.

It sure wasn't easy or quick
At it I needed to stick
It took thought and time
To scan and to rhyme
But at last I wrote my LIMERICK!
